Dr. B. Hughes has been a practicing physician 21 years, but is as active yet as a flier, and probably can "jump up, and crack his heels together twice before alighting," which almost any youngster considers an accomplishment.

W. A. Colley of Prairie Hill was here this week helping E. P. Stamper in the wool business. A car load was shipped Monday to Moberly for which he paid from 16 to 16 1-2 cents a pound.

Sheriff A. N. Harding and Deputy Edgar Tisdale returned Wednesday. They took Obe McAdam of Salisbury and Ed Houston of Forrest Green, both colored boys, to Booneville reform school for two years, and Roger Mahoney, white, of Tripsett, to the penitentiary at Jefferson City for four years. The prisoners were convicted of burglary and larceny.

Mrs. B. Hughes delightfully entertained Friday in honor of Mrs. Henry West of Brookfield, who returned home Saturday. Three tables for bridge was the chief amusement, the prize going to Mrs. West. Four rooms were tastefully decorated with many colors of flowers, and an elaborate luncheon was enjoyed.

The Fine Dark Bay Draft Stallion Honest Bob.

The fine dark bay draft stallion will make the season of 1911 at my farm, 4 miles northwest of Keytesville, at $10.00 to insure mare with foal. Honest Bob is 16 1-2 hands high and will weigh about 1,500 pounds; has good style and action and is a sure foal-getter. This is a high grade Percheron, and his colts rank very high, having brought $100 each at 6 months of age.

Don Pedro

A No. 1 black jack, with white points, splendid head and ears and large bone; will make the season at the same time and place. Don Pedro has proven a sure foal-getter and his colts are first-class. Terms $8.00 to insure mare with foal.

In all cases, lien on mare until colt is foaled, and then colt is to stand good for the season. If mare is sold, traded or taken from the county, service becomes payable at once. Greatest care will be taken to prevent accidents, but I assume no liability should any occur.
